

Kingsland College of Business Studies are proud to be a strategic partner of The HRD Group. Together we offer our clients a personal and customisable learning solution.

The Kingsland College of Business Studies was established in 1992 and The HRD Group in 1987 and together we have designed a range of both accredited and non-accredited Management training programmes that use the international learning and Management HRD Online system for underpinning knowledge and knowledge assessment.

The HRD Online system is the e-learning division of The HRD Group.

The HRD Online system is unique in using push learning technology, and has over 400+ Business, Management and Personal Generic Skills online training courses in its Resource Library. HRD Online system is product approved by The Institute of Leadership & Management (the ILM) to provide the underpinning knowledge for Online or Blended programmes covering Level 2, 3, 4 and 5 Qualifications.

Kingsland College of Business Studies are leading the way in delivering Management training using innovative, enjoyable and effective learning methods.
